THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.

A National Convention of the Republican party will meet at Chicago, Wednesday, the 2d day of June next, for the nomination of candidates to be supported for President and Vice President at the next election.

Republicans, and all who will co-operate with them in supporting the nominee of the party, are invited to choose two delegates from each Congressional District, four at large from each State, two from each Territory, and two from the District of Columbia, to represent them in the Convention.

J. D. CAMERON, Chairman.
THOMAS B. KEOGH, Secretary.

About the only thing the Democrats are doing is meditating and theirs is a sad meditation.

The Democrats in Congress still fail to show any hopeful frame of mind. They have nothing to do and nothing to hope for.

The news that Tilden intends to marry, is discouraging to Seymour, Bayard, and Hendricks. They thought he was nearly dead.

Dr. Lord, member of the Assembly from the Third District, struck a popular idea when he said "Blaine first, and Grant in an emergency."

Tilden's latest scheme for carrying the Democratic Convention is to get married. He has chosen a young lady of Ranck, who lives in Pennsylvania.

Ben Hill will be careful not to stir up Blaine this session for fear the latter would clean out the Democratic Senate and improve his Presidential prospects fifty per cent.

The Republicans in the Legislature have an opportunity to give the State a short session. There are very few important bills before the Legislature which should be passed, and therefore if they consult the wishes of the people they will adjourn before the first day of March. It can be done and should be done.

The late Horace Thompson, of St. Paul, did a noble act when he drew his will and bequeathed to Miss Louise Miller, the enormous sum of 500,000 dollars. Miss Miller is the daughter of a poor German family in St. Paul. She entered the Thompson family a few years ago as a nurse, and it is said that on one occasion, she saved the life of the youngest son of Mr. Thompson, by constant care and careful nursing during his severe illness. The family appreciated her services so deeply at that time that Mr. Thompson adopted her, and in his will gave her a half a million dollars—an equal share with his widow and two sons.

The news comes from Cleveland, Ohio, that the most extraordinary case of the petrifying of the skin ever known in medical history, was made the subject of a medical clinic in that city last Saturday. The case was that of a child taken to Cleveland from New Philadelphia, and is becoming literally petrified. The flesh is described as being as cold and hard as marble, and the child, which is only three years old, continues to live but can only move its lips and eyes. It has none of the warmth and pliability of human flesh, and it sleeps with its eyes open, presenting a most ghastly spectacle. Until six months ago the child was in good health. The disease is in one of the connective tissues between the skin and flesh. This is the thirty-fifth case of this kind discovered. The child must die, as complete petrification will take place.

In our dispatches yesterday we published the result of the interview had by the Madison Democrat with the State officers and members of the Legislature, regarding their choice for President. Of the 133 persons interviewed, 42 expressed a preference for Blaine, while Grant had 27. This can hardly be taken as the relative strength of Blaine and Grant. There comes from other sources strong indications that Blaine is much the stronger candidate in Wisconsin. We believe he is in the West generally, as between he and Grant. There are hundreds of thousands of Republicans who have as much admiration for Grant now as they had in 1872, when they voted for him and worked for him with an enthusiasm which resulted in a grand and historic victory; but they are opposed to a third term, and beside that they regard that there are other men equally as competent, fully as strong, and deeply as patriotic and deserving, and therefore they prefer another man. If the State Conventions could be free to select their delegates without coming in contact with the mighty influence of the horde of politicians, there is no doubt that Mr. Blaine would receive a majority of the delegates in the West. But if the State Conventions are to be manipulated after the fashion of those of New York and Pennsylvania, where the spirit of Conkling and Cameron reign, then we may expect to see Grant men selected for delegates.

THE COST OF MAKING A PAPER.

The recent boom in business has struck almost everything but newspapers, and while nearly every enterprise is reveling in more or less of prosperity, the great newspaper concerns of the country are laboring hard to save themselves from loss. When iron advanced last year, the articles out of which it was made, advanced, when cotton advanced, the merchant increased the price of cotton goods, and a like rise took place in all goods, the raw material of which took a sudden rise under the magic power of resumption. But the publishers of newspapers have not been as fortunate as the dealer in iron or the merchant. It seemed to be an easy matter to advance the price of articles in the manufacture of which iron was largely used, and everybody expected that cotton goods, woolens, silks and the like, would increase in price with the increased cost of manufacture, but the public was not prepared to accept a rise in the price of a daily newspaper. All the materials that enter into the making of a newspaper have advanced fully fifty per cent during the past six months, and with but few exceptions, there has been no rise in the price of the printed sheets. Following the general order of things in business generally, publishers of newspapers would have immediately increased the price of their papers to correspond with the increased price of making the paper for the public to read. But few, comparatively, have done this. The St. Louis papers were the first to increase the subscription rates in order to save themselves from loss. The great New York dailies have been compelled to raise the price one cent a copy.

The Chicago Times, which increased its size a short time before the boom began to work a revolution in trade, is now experiencing some difficulty to save itself from ruin. Wild and visionary theories as to the size the Times should assume, led Mr. Storey to out-do all other publishers in Chicago, or even in the United States, in regard to the size of his paper. He made a mammoth sheet but committed a mammoth blunder. He promised more than he could perform, and he is now paying for his reckless ambition. The "business boom" struck the Times as it struck other newspapers, in the wrong way, and the alternatives presented were to reduce the size of the paper or increase its price. Not wishing to humiliate himself by reducing the size of the Times, he decided to increase the price, and now the public pays six cents for that paper instead of five, a fact which will contribute much to reduce its circulation. It now charges $16.00 a year for the daily, including the Sunday edition, and $14,00 without it. This makes the Chicago Times the highest priced political paper in the United States.

These are facts regarding the cost of making a newspaper under the influence of the "boom," which the public should understand and wisely consider.

THE WHITEWATER POSTOFFICE.

There has been a great deal of talk lately about the Whitewater postoffice, and some severe stauctures have been made on Congressman Williams' action regarding the removal of Postmaster Cravath. We are requested to publish the following note from that place, and do so with pleasure:

WHITEWATER, Feb. 3, 1880.
To the Editor.

A few days ago the Janesville Times contained an alleged dispatch, stating in substance, that the people of Whitewater had risen en masse, and regardless of party relations, to express their indignation against Congressman Williams for not recommending the re-appointment of Postmaster Cravath for a third term. I have given this matter careful investigation, and have not yet found the least symptom of the indignation referred to. The statement in the Times is an absolute and unmitigated falsehood. There is no indignation, and no censorious comments upon Congressman Williams' action. I have yet to find the first man who does not say that he was justified in what he did, and that he would not have been justified in doing otherwise. The fact is that all reports representing that there is dissatisfaction in Whitewater over the postoffice change, come from an interested source, and have not the slightest basis of truth to stand upon. MERCURY.

The above note is from one of the best known and most highly respected business men of that village, and can be relied upon as giving expression to the sentiment there on the postoffice question.

CANVASSING THE GALLOWS.

The subject of capital punishment is "in everybody's mouth," and the following will not be uninteresting:

MILTON, Feb. 3, 1880.
To the Editor.

Noticing in the daily of Saturday last, your editorial on capital punishment bill, and your expression of belief that it would meet the approval of ninety-nine out of every hundred, I thought I would make a slight test of the question. So, from ten o'clock a. m. to six p. m. on yesterday, I undertook to ask every voter who came into my place of business, his sentiments; whether he was in favor of the bill or opposed to it. I missed very few, not more than four or five, and obtained an answer without any sort of argument, simply asking the question and checking according to the reply. The canvass resulted as follows: Total vote, sixty-nine; for the restoration of capital punishment, thirty-seven; against, thirty-two. I think this will very nearly represent the sentiment of this community on the question, and it shows a much more enlightened state of public opinion than you would seem to expect.

W. P. CLARKE.

We thank Mr. Clarke for taking the trouble to canvass to the question among his customers and for sending us the result. The capital punishment bill will receive much attention and create considerable discussion when it came up on its passage in the Assembly, and in view of the grave importance of the measure these expressions of public sentiment not only have a deep interest attached to them, but they should be given to the public.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 3—A young man entered the office of the Guarantee Trust & Safe Deposit Company, yesterday, and the attention of the clerk being diverted, stole fourteen $1,000 bonds of the Crane Iron Company, held by the Deposit Company as collateral.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4—The New York Hearld subscribed to-day $100,000 for the relief of the distressed in Ireland.

PARNELL'S CALLS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4—Parnell and Dillon called on President Hayes, to-day, and were cordially received. Afterwards they visited the Cabinet officials.

SEVEN KILLED.

Special to the Gazette.

PARIS, Feb. 4—A terrible railroad collision occured this morning on the railway to Versailles. Seven were killed and twenty seriously injured. A misplaced switch was the cause. Some most woeful scenes were presented as the friends recognized the dead.

STATE FAIR.

Special to the Gazette.

MADISON Feb. 4—The Executive Board of the State Agricultural Society met Monday evening, and adopted rules and regulations revised the premium list and fixed upon the second week in September as the time for holding the fair. A committee was appointed, consisting of Speaker Arnold, President N D Pratt, of Racine, Treasurer C Miner, of Janesville, Secretary George E Bryant, of Dane county, and Hon Sat Clark, of Dodge county, who were authorized to receive proposals and to locate the coming fair. The only cities who have intimated that they will enter the contest for securing it are Madison and La Crosse.

HARRISBURG.

The Pennsylvania Republican Convention.

Special to the Gazette.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 4.—The State Republican Convention met at noon to-day. It was evident from the contest that there would be no compromise. Russell Eyrett, a Cameron candidate, was chosen temporary chairman, and was elected over G. V. Laurence, a Blaine candidate, by a vote of 150 to 92. He took his seat amid great cheering by the Grant faction.

The Blaine men are still sanguine, and maintain a bold front. They hope, at least, to prevent instructions being given for Grant. They want delegates chosen by Congressional Districts, and if not given fair play will withdraw. There is talk of a compromise on Galush A. Graw for permanent chairman. The usual Committees were appointed and a recess taken till half past two o'clock. There is no doubt that the delegates will be instructed for Grant.

IRELAND.

The Cry of Distress in Ireland—Three Hundred Thousand People Slowly Starving to Death.

LONDON, Feb. 3—The Herald correspondent at Dublin telegraphs as follows:

The daily, hourly cry of distress in Ireland is becoming more and more urgent and widespread. Every day reveals new horrors in the catalogue of suffering. The outlook for the coming month is gloomier than any prediction has yet painted it. No language can describe the appalling privations, the utter destitution which prevails, but a vivid picture can be found in the statement and figures below. They are not exaggerated, and are well authenticated. Three hundred thousand people are slowly starving. It is impossible to overdraw the situation, so rapidly do matters become worse. What might have been an exaggeration yesterday will to-morrow be an underestimate. Three hundred thousand people are slowly starving, and can only be kept alive by superhuman efforts on the part of their fellow creatures. Some of them are living on one meal a day, of turnips or of meal. Thousands more are consuming their last potatoes. Local efforts are becoming feeble. The people are looking to the world for succor. In the cause of humanity, the land agitation has hidden its head for the moment, the agitators lending a hand in the common cause. Parnell's attack upon the Mansion House and the Duchess of Marlborough funds is a crime the responsibility of which no man should take upon himself at this time. The confusion thus caused only blinds the eyes of America to the present awful necessities of the Irish peasantry. If Parnell be a true Irish patriot he will sink animosities, which everyone deprecates, even his friends and sympathizers, and will become the champion in America of that cause in which all the world is one—the cause of charity.

The following figures are compiled from the official returns of the local committees to the central bodies organized for the distribution of relief in Dublin, as well as from private inquiries made by your correspondent. They are vouched for by Protestant and Catholic clergy, gentry, and public officials. Further returns are arriving daily in overwhelming numbers.

The returns by counties where the chief distress exists show the number of those suffering to be as follows:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Mayo | 64,509 | Limerick | 7,665 |
| Galway | 43,293 | Tipperary | 6,300 |
| Sligo | 42,939 | Leitrim | 5,890 |
| Kerry | 33,100 | Wicklow | 3,690 |
| Donegal | 28,000 | Monaghan | 2,300 |
| Roscommon | 26,150 | Westmeath | 1,900 |
| Cork | 23,896 | Longford | 1,875 |
| Clare | 19,360 | Kilkenny | 1,790 |
| Total | | | 312,370 |

HUNT'S PICTURES.

BOSTON, Feb. 3—At the first day's sale of oil paintings and charcoal sketches of the late William M Hunt to-day, prices ran very high. Fifty paintings were sold, and the aggregate price was over $38,000. The highest price was paid for a painting of American Falls, Niagara, which brought $9,600. Several others brought over $1,000. Doubtless societies and institutions were among the purchasers, but they were under other names, and cannot be told at present. The sale concludes to-morrow. People came from all over the country to attend the sale. Cincinnati and New York were represented by buyers present, but most of the purchasers were from Boston. All the works catalouged were sold without reserve with one exception, a large Niagara, painted in 1879. On this work a startling bid of $10 000 was received. It was understood however that if the prices offered were not satisfactory to the family the picture would not be sold, and this figure not being satisfactory the picture was withdrawn.

SUICIDE.

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 3—Last evening Christian Landgraf, charged with bigamy, was arrested and lodged in the County Jail. At 7 o'clock this morning it was discovered that the prisoner had committed suicide. Landgraf occupied the fourth cell of the upper tier. He talked with the prisoners in the adjoining cells until midnight, and then retired to rest, as was supposed. But it appears that he merely waited until the others had gone to sleep. Then, disengaging the comforter which encircled his neck, he stepped upon his bed and made one end fast to the iron grating. The other end he fastened about his neck, and swung himself off into eternity. When found his face was close to the cell grating, his feet barely touched the floor. The body was cut down and sent to the Morgue. Coroner Kuepper held an inquest this forenoon. A verdict of death by suicide was was returned. Landgraf was a shoemaker by trade, and 32 years old.

DENIED.

What the Old Man Tilden Says Regarding the Report of His Intended Marriage.

NEW YORK, FEB 3—Tilden's secretary furnished the following regarding the report of the approaching marriage of Tilden to Miss Rauck, of Lewisburg: "Mr. Tilden says the report is as true as about nine tenths of the statements concerning him daily published,—that is, not at all. He presumes that the authors of the rumor have acted on the maxim of equity jurisprudence. 'That what ought to have been done has in fact been done' but unfortunately, he never had the pleasure of knowing of the existence of any such lady."

CAUGHT.

MAUSTON, Feb. 3—W. W. Hall, of Chicago, has been on the track of a gang of counterfeiters in this vicinity for some time, and finally captured them this afternoon about 5 o'clock. The parties live about three miles south from the village, and have borne a hard name. The coin they had in their possession was the finest specimen of the kind ever seen in this section of country. They will be examined to-morrow and the full particulars developed.

TRAGIC SUICIDE.

NEWARK, N. J. Feb. 3—Charles Decker, proprietor of a hardware store, last night took a large hollow block of iron and converted it into a cannon, filling it up with powder and lead, and then placed it under his chin and set fire to the powder. The room in which the tragedy occurred presented a most sickening sight.

STATE CONVENTION.

MADISON, Feb. 3—The Republican State Convention to elect delegates to the National Convention, and to nominate candidates for Electors, will be called in a few days. The Convention will be held at Madison about the 1st of May,—a few days earlier or later.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, August 20, 1879.

Messrs MORGAN & ALLEN, 59 John St., New York City:

Gentlemen—Having noticed your advertisement in the Daily Saratogian, I wish to add to your list of testimonials my own. Thirteen years ago I was sick with Bright's Disease for eight months without receiving the slightest benefit from the doctors. Fortunately my attention was called to your medicine, "Constitution Water," and after using two bottles I was entirely cured. Any one afflicted in like manner should not hesitate to use your remedy. I should be happy to see any one on the subject who is in doubt as to the truthfulness of this statement. Yours truly,

A Struggle with a Devil-Fish.

London Times.

Mr. Smale, the Government diver who was attacked by a large octopus, or devil-fish, while at work recently on the bed of the Moyne river, at Belfast, in the Colony of Victoria, gives this account of the affair: "Having thrust my arm into a hole, I found it was held by something, and the action of the water was stirring up the loose clay, and therefore I could not see distinctly for a few minutes; but when it did clear away I saw to my horror the arm of a large octopus entwined around mine like a boa-constrictor, and just then he fixed some of his suckers on the back of my hand, and the pain was intense. I felt as if my hand was being pulled to pieces, and the more I tried to take it away the greater the pain became. I had the greatest difficulty in keeping my feet down, as the air rushed along the interior of my dress and inflated it; and if my feet had got uppermost I should soon have become insensible held in such a position; and, also, if I had given the signal to be pulled up, the brute would have held on, and the chances would have been that I should have an arm broken. I had a hammer with me, but could not reach down to use it on the brute. There was a small iron bar about five feet from me, and with my foot I dragged this along until I could reach it with my left hand. And now the fight commenced, and the more I struck him the tighter he squeezed, until my arm got quite benumbed. After a while I found the grip begin to relax a little, but he held on until I had almost cut him to pieces, and then he relaxed his hold from the rock and I pulled him up. I was completely exhausted, having been in that position for over twenty minutes. I brought the animal up, or rather a part of it. We laid him out, and he measured over eight feet across, and I feel perfectly convinced that this fellow could have held down five or six men."

CHICAGO CHURCHES.

The Ministers and Their Mortgages.

Special Correspondence of the Gazette.

CHICAGO, Feb. 2—It is conceded by many that there is no city on this continent which displays a greater or more varied amount of ministerial talent, according to population, than Chicago does. From gay to solemn, from ridiculous to sublime, and from witty to stale, are the chief characteristics of our pulpit divines. Many of them preach the pure gospel of Christ, as embodied in his life, and character, and according to his commands. Such churches generally exhibit to the world the most truthful, faithful and upright christian lives,—in word and in deed. Others are for ever striving after the unattainable—diving into the unfathomable sea of controversy Others are mirthful or solemn, according to the state of their digestion or quality of the pastoral breakfast or dinner. Others are simply flat, and very unprofitable servants of the master. Since the advent of Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll's doctrines in our midst, very few sermons have been preached from the Old Testament. Severe denunciations have been hurled at his head from many of our pulpits. He has been denounced and maligned on every hand; instead of a greater research into the Bible, and a more thorough explanation and definitions our pastors merely denounce and condemn this great opponent. If Ingersoll in his attempts to annul the Old testament, should in a measure succeed, he would be greatly helped in his undertaking by those ministers who held him up to derision and public scorn. Some of our pastors take a more charitable view of the matter and sincerely inform their flocks to judge for themselves as between "Christ and Ingersoll," the "New Testament and Skulls," and then decide on the merits of the case.

There are nearly 250 churches of all denominations, at present in this city. Many of these have liquidated their entire indebtedness since the commencement of better times. Over 175 of the number still owe near $1,500,000, or at an average of $9,000 each. Small churches in outlying districts are now generally free from debt. Their congregations for the most part, are composed of hard working mechanics and their families, who believe in the maxim, "Owe no man anything." Our large and magnificent churches are generally mortgaged to the last brick and handful of mortar, from the chandelier to the costly organ, and cushioned seats. The beautiful stained windows and deep toned bell, to the superfluous turrets and staunch spires, rest under heavy mortgages. Many have been sold under trust deeds, and converted into manufacturies and work hops, one especially—a magnificent structure—being fitted into a high-toned boarding house, with "rooms to let" day or night, and patronized by Chicago's elite. A small sanctuary as the intersection of two streets, whose mortgage of $1,200 is now due,—was offered this amount by an enterprising man, in advance for one years rent of their basement—used as a prayer room, to be fitted up as a saloon. A vote by ballot of the members was taken on the proposition, and resulted in 40 ayes and 41 nays—the pastor voting in the negative. The renting of the basement for such purposes, would enable us to attack this epigram:

"Spirits above and spirits below,
Spirits of bliss and spirits of woe;
The spirits above are the spirits divine,
The spirits below are the spirits of wine."

Weather cold again, and coal dealers correspondingly jubilant.

Capital Punishment.

As to the possibility of substituting for the gallows some form of death likely to be less painful, Dr. Henry Nachtel, a distinguished French physicist now in New York, says that the garrote does not always kill the first time, and could not be made successful except in the hands of a skillful surgeon; that administering chloroform violently is very painful; that prussic acid in the eye does not always produce instantaneous death, and must be administered by a physician; that death by strychnine is sometimes accompanied by terrible convulsions and great pain; and that even electricity is not sure, for a man in England was struck by lightning and stripped of his clothes and many bones were broken and yet he survived it. "Hanged by the neck until dead,' seems likely to remain on the statute books for the present.

Ben. Wade's Plain Speech and High Courage.

General J. S. Brisbin in the Philadelphia Press.

The great struggle over the Kansas-Nebraska bill had brought Mr. Wade prominently before the country as a debater. The Southern fire eaters and their allies, the Northern dough faces, had combined to throw him down, but he kept his feet, hurled them back with surprising dexterity and ability and pursuing taught them for the first time that they had a master in the United States Senate who would not spare them.

The Hon. Charles G. Atherton, of New Hampshire, better known as "Gag Atherton," from the introduction of a resolution to lay all anti-slavery petitions on the table, was emphatically a Northern man with Southern principles.

One day Mr. Wade, who was personally popular, even with his political opponents, was conversing with ex-Governor Morehead, of Kentucky, who was then visiting Washington when Atherton came up and at once commenced an attack on Mr. Wade in regard to the Fugitive Slave law.

"Why, Mr. Wade," he said "if a nigger runs away from a good master in Kentucky and comes to your house in Ohio, wouldn't you arrest him and send him back to his master?"

"No, indeed, I wouldn't," replied Mr. Wade. "Would you, Atherton?"

"Certainly I would," said Atherton. "I should deem it my duty to enforce that as much as any other law."

Mr. Wade turned to Governor Morehead

"Well, Governor, what would you say? Would you arrest a negro and send him back under such circumstances?"

"No," replied the Governor, gruffly; "I'd see him damned first."

"Well," said old Ben, after a moment's pause, "I don't know as I can blame you, seeing you have got such a thing as that (pointing to Atherton) to do the dirty work for you"

Soon after taking his seat as a Senator the great Ohioan witnessed one of those scenes so common in the Senate in those days. A Southern fire eater made an attack on a Northern Senator, and Wade was amazed and disgusted at the cringing, cowardly way in which the Northern man bore the taunts and insults of the hot headed Southerner. As no allusion was made to Ohio or himself, Mr. Wade sat still, but when the Senate adjourned he said, openly, if ever a Southern Senator made such an attack on him or his State while he was on that floor he would brand him as a liar. This coming to the ears of the Southern men, a Senator took occasion to point out speak a few days afterward of Ohio and her people as negro thieves. Instantly, Mr. Wade sprang to his feet and pronounced the Senator a liar.

The Southern Senators were thunderstruck and gathered around their champion, while the Northern men grouped about Wade. A feeler was put from the Southern side looking to retraction, but Mr. Wade retorted in his peculiar style and demanded an apology for the insult offered himself and the people he represented. The matter thus closed and a fight was looked upon as certain. The next day a gentleman called upon Senator Wade and asked him the usual question touching his acknowledgment of the code.

"I am here" he responded, "in a double capacity; I represent the State of Ohio and I represent Ben Wade. As a Senator I am opposed to duelling; as Ben Wade I recognize the code."

"My friend feels aggrieved," said the gentleman, "at what you said in the Senate yesterday, and will ask an apology or satisfaction."

"I was somewhat embarrassed," continued Senator Wade, "by my position yesterday, as I have some respect for the Senate Chamber. I now take this opportunity to say what I then thought, but could not say, and you will, if you please, repeat it. Your friend is a foul mouth old blackguard."

"Certainly, Senator Wade, you do not wish me to convey such a message as that?"

"Most undoubtedly I do, and I will tell you for your own benefit, this friend of yours will never notice it; I will not be asked by him for either retraction, explanation or a fight."

Next morning Mr Wade came into the Senate, and proceeding to his seat deliberately drew from under his coat two large navy revolvers, and unlocking his desk laid them inside. The Southern men looked on in silence, while the Northern men enjoyed to the fullest extent the fire eater's surprise at the proceedings of the plucky Ohio Senator. No further notice was taken of the affair of the day before Wade was not challenged, but ever afterward was treated with the utmost politeness and consideration by the Senator who had so insultingly attacked him.

Caution.

A WORD TO THOSE WHO USE POROUS PLASTERS. It is a universally acknowledged fact that BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTERS ARE SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS. The great demand for them has caused a number of unscrupulous parties to make and sell worthless imitations under the name of Capsiccum or Capsicin. As the market is flooded with inferior plasters selling at any price it is important for the consumer to know which is the best. It is well known that some of the cheap plasters have been examined and found to contain injurious ingredients which make them dangerous to use, causing paralysis and other diseases. All genuine BENSON'S CAPCINE PLASTERS have the word CAPCINE cut in them. SEABURY & JOHNSON, Pharmaceutical Chemists, New York. PRICE 25 CTS. 21w4w deod

THE READY FAMILY SOAP MAKER:

LEWIS' LYE

98 PER CENT. PURE. (Patented.)

FINELY POWDERED.

HIGHLY PERFUMED.

The strongest and purest Lye made. Will make 12 pounds of the best Perfumed Hard Soap in 20 minutes without boiling.

The best water-softener made.

The best disinfectant.

The following are some of the advantages obtained by using Lewis' 98 Per Cent. Powdered Lye:

First. It is packed in an iron can with a slip or removable lid, easily taken off and leaving the contents exposed, thereby saving the trouble, annoyance, and danger (from flying particles), as with other Lyes, which, being solid in the cans, must be broken with a hammer to get the Lye out.

Second. It being a fine powder, you can remove the lid and pour out all the contents, being always ready for use.

Third. A teaspoonful or more can be used, as in water-softening, scrubbing, etc., and the lid returned to the can, and thereby save the balance of contents. With other Lyes all must be dissolved at once and used in a short time, or the strength is gone.

Fourth. Absolute purity. Free from all adulterations.

Fifth. The best Soap can be made in from ten to twenty minutes with this Lye.

Sixth. No failure is possible in making Soap with this Lye when the simple directions given are followed.

Seventh. One can of this Powdered Lye is equal to twenty pounds of Sal Soda or Washing Soda.

Eighth. One can of this Lye will saponify one pound more of grease than any other Concentrated Lye, Ball Potash, or Saponifier.

Ninth. This Lye is 28 per cent. stronger than any other Lye or Potash.

Tenth. One to two teaspoonfuls will soften a tub of the hardest water.

Eleventh. One teaspoonful will thoroughly cleanse Sinks, Drains, or Closets.

Invaluable for killing Roaches, Mice, Rats, etc. The best article for washing Trees.

PROF. HARRIS' RADICAL CURE FOR SPERMATTORHŒA.

—THE—

"SEMINAL PASTILLE"

A Valuable Discovery and New Departure in Medical Science, an entirely New and positively effective Remedy for the speedy and permanent Cure of Seminal Emissions & Impotency by the only true way, viz: Direct Application to the principal seat of the Disease, acting by Absorption, and exerting its specific influence on the Seminal Vesicles Ejaculatory Ducts, Prostrate Gland and Urethra. The use of the Remedy is attended with no pain or inconvenience. It is quickly dissolved and soon absorbed, producing an immediate soothing and restorative effect upon the sexual and nervous organizations wrecked from self-abuse and excesses, stopping the drain from the system, restoring the mind to health and sound memory, removing the Dimness of Sight, Nervous Debility, Confusion of Ideas, Aversion to Society, Etc. Etc. and the appearance of premature old age usually accompanying this trouble, and restoring perfect Sexual Vigor, where it has been dormant for years. This mode of treatment has stood the test in very severe cases, and is now a pronounced success. Drugs are too much prescribed in these troubles, and, as many can bear witness to, with but little if any permanent good. There is no Nonsense about this Preparation, Practical observation enables us to positively guarantee that it will give satisfaction.——During the eight years that it has been in general use, we have thousands of testimonials as to its value, and it is now conceded by the Medical Profession to be the most rational means yet discovered of reaching and curing this very prevalent trouble. that is well known to be the cause of untold misery to so many, and upon whom quacks prey with their useless nostrums and big fees. The Remedy is put up in a neat box, enough to last a month, and sent in a plain wrapper by mail sealed for $3.—Two boxes, (sufficient to effect a permanent cure unless in severe cases) $5 ——Three boxes lasting three full months, will stop emissions, and restore vigor, in the worst cases, $7.—Full DIRECTIONS for using will accompany EACH BOX.

(Send for a Descriptive Pamphlet giving Anatomical Illustrations, which will convince the most sceptical that they can be restored to perfect manhood, and fitted for the duties of life, same as if never affected. Sent Sealed for stamp to any one. Sold ONLY by the)

Dr. Price's reputation has been acquired by candid, honest dealing and years of successful practice.

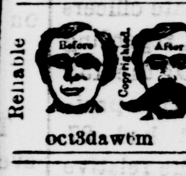

My practice not one of experiment, but founded on the laws of Nature, with years of experience and evidence to sustain it, does not tear down, make sick to make well; no harsh treatment, no trifling, no flattering. We know the cause and the remedy needed; no guess work, but knowledge gained by years of experience in the treatment of Chronic diseases exclusively; no encouragement without a prospect Candid in our opinions, reasonable in our charges, claim not to know everything, or cure everybody, but do lay claim to reason and common sense. We invite the sick, no matter what their ailment, to call and investigate before they abandon hope, make interrogations and decide for yourselves; it will cost nothing as consultation is free. Visits made regularly.

THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1880.

EMERALD GROVE.

—Mrs. Earl, mother of the Earl Brothers, died very suddenly last Friday, at her son-in-law's, Mr. John Wetmore, and was buried here last Sunday.

—Rev. W. T. Miller started for New York, last Monday morning, where his wife's folks resides, to assist in settling up his father-in-law's estate.

—Mr. Charles Stoller is happier than ever now, with another ten-pound boy, but Andrew thinks he has the prize now—a nice little daughter.

—Squire & Munger are in Chicago, so you can look out for new goods the last of the week.

MILTON.

—Mrs H H Johnson, of whose illness we made mention some weeks ago, died Saturday afternoon. A week or more prior to her death it was thought she would recover, but on Tuesday night of last week she was much worse and the next day her physician gave it as his opinion that she would not live the day out, but she lingered along until Saturday at 5 o'clock. Her only sister, Mrs Dennis Johnson, of Allegany county, New York, arrived from the east on Thursday and was able to be with the deceased during the last hours. Mrs Johnson was a pure, higher minded woman, whose life was without fault, and whose memory will be enshrined forever in the hearts of her friends and neighbors, and her death leaves a void in the social circle, in which she moved, and in the community, that none other can fill. The bereaved husband and mourning relatives have the heartfelt sympathy of all, and we feel that one of the noblest creatures of God, a true woman, has gone to the better land, a lot which her earth life had fitted her to enjoy in all its fullness. The funeral services took place on Tuesday afternoon at Milton Junction S D B church, of which the deceased was a member, and the remains were interred in the cemetery of this place.

—Several members of the band attended the Bower City Band's concert Monday evening and enjoyed the programme very much. The Bower City Band take the cake on skillful and tasty execution of difficult selections.

—I D Bassett loaded his household goods, farming tools, horses and himself into a car at this station last week and went out into Iowa to be a granger.

SHOPIERE.

—Ice upon the creek is four inches thick How is that for a February freeze?

—Mr H Lovell, from below Turtleville, has had the misfortune to lose a horse from his only team. The horse became unruly and broke his neck. The friends of Mr Lovell are raising a subscription to replace the loss.

—Mr R Kemmerer has just completed a new barn.

—We are very sorry to record the death of Mr Wadsworth's youngest child, a little boy, who died last week of congestion of the lungs. The funeral services were conducted by Rev Mr Dresser at the house, last Friday morning. All sympathize with the afflicted family.

—Mr George Cheney, formerly of this place, but recently from Iowa, is visiting friends and relatives in Shopiere.

—Good going—that is, if you go on foot.

—Deacon Hopkins, who has been on the sick list for a few days, is again able to be out.

—Mr Richard Downes, of Janesville, was in town on Monday collecting rents.

—We could not imagine what made Mr L Truesdale look so happy. Come to find out, it's a fine ten pound boy.

—Mr A T Adams has sold a half interest in his grocery store to Mr Thomas Day; so hereafter the name of the firm will be Adams & Day. All ready for trade —Another happy man! It's Charlie Kemmerer this time, and another fine boy will have his name on the family record.

—The coal at the depot has been turned over to Mr J Thomas, who will hereafter wait on customers.

—Don't forget to watch for that wedding; its surely coming, but you won't hear of it unless you take the Gazette.

—The Rock County Sunday School Convention meets at Shopiere on the 10th and 11th of February. An unusually interesting programme has been arranged. Tuesday evening the Sunday schools of our two churches are expected to give a union concert. Everyone expects a treat in attending the Convention. Come one, come all.

—The revival meetings are increasing in interest, and have not been in vain. Several are seeking the way of eternal life, and still "there's more to follow."

TAYLORVILLE'S GHOST.

The Christian County Ghost Again Gets His Work in.

The haunted house in Johnson township in Christian county, is again called on to do sensational service. A correspondent of the Globe-Democrat writes concerning it, and states that at times the ghost seems in good spirits, and trips over the floor in the gayest manner. He taps on the window pane, rattles the doors, and thumps the walls as if in great anger, and anon he groans in agony, making hideous and unearthly noises that are thrilling in the extreme. These signs of distress are described as being like unto the groans of a horse in great agony. This sort of procedure has been going on for nine years. Family after family have lived there, but none have remained there any great length of time. Each has gone there with the determination to live down superstition, but the strongest resolutions have given way after a short experience in the dismal place. Various theories as to the cause of these mysterious sounds have been advanced, but each have been abundantly proved unfounded. Everything possible has been done to ferret the mystery, but it remains as much a mystery to-day as ever, and the most incredulous and even-balanced minds in the neighborhood have given way to the belief that there must be "some thing in it."

The last family that resided there (and they only left last week) was that of Samuel Laughlin. They have lived there longer than any of the others, but while they went there entirely free from superstition, they are now firm believers that restless spirits walk on earth and frequent the places where dark and bloody deeds have been done. At first they paid no attention to the noises, but during the last few months the noises have become more frequent and hideous, until one night last week they became unbearable, and with fear and trembling the terrified family fled from the house. The hired man left some time ago, and he described the groans as being of a most dreadful character, issuing from all parts of the house, but neither he nor any one else have ever seen a spectral figure or ghostly apparition, every attempt to discover the author of the mysterious sounds which only occur near midnight, proving futile.

The desertion of the house by the Laughlin family, has thrown the neighborhood into the wildest excitement. The people say the mystery must be laid bare if the place has to be torn to splices. Many attribute the mysterious sounds to the last many years ago, a desterly murder and robbery is supposed to have been committed there. It is said that a peddler once visited those parts, disposing of many articles to the farmers. He is known to have been in possession of considerable money, and to have had many valuable articles in his pack. He was seen, it is said, to enter that house, and none in the vicinity ever saw or heard of him afterward. Foul play was suspected at the time, and as years have passed by and these mysterious sounds have occurred the suspicion has increased. A few years after the supposed murder a gang of counterfeiters were detected making spurious coin in the house, and it is argued that no doubt many a foul and bloody deed has been committed there. The flight of the Laughlin family tends to more firmly establish this belief and many discussions of the matter have taken place within the last few days.

A Dog Race.

Negaunee (Mich.) Herald.

The dog race came off Saturday as announced, and as usual drew a large number of people to witness the sport. The day proved to be one of the finest of the season, which no doubt greatly augmented the number of entries and contributed greatly to the success of the race. Long before the time set for the race to begin, the starting point was crowded with all manner, kinds and colors of dogs,—big, little, silent, and unruly dogs, fat and lean dogs, aristocratic and plebian dogs,—in fact every conceivable sort and breed of dogs was on hand, each with his jocky, and resigned to undergo a few hours torture for the amusement of the vast throng that lined the entire length of either side of Iron street. Promptly at 2:30 o'clock the starter arranged the howling, barking, snarling aggregation, and, giving the word go, twenty-five distinct yells broke the stillness of the bright afternoon atmosphere, twenty-five lashes descended upon twenty-five hapless dogs, and the plunging, struggling, confused mass of boy, sled and dog passed over the street like a streak of greased lightning. Before the quarter-post was passed, a dozen ore teams had been demolished, the good resolutions of seventy-two citizens had been recalled, and a general pandemonium prevailed among dogs, sleds, boys, pedestrians, wood coaches and ore teams. During the melee Masters Fasbender, Uren, and McCarthy made the finish, the former winning by several lengths. The remaining heats were a repetition of the first, and the race was finally awarded to Master Uren, of Ishpeming, who also carried off the special purse of $10.

CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections that confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists, and patients is unanimous on this point, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position this remedy has attained, and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R.I.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S.

I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial, I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc. THEO. P. BOGERT.

BRISTOL, R. I., July 24, 1877.

CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEFLETS.

—Better for ice.

—Dancing school to-night.

—The Concordia masquerade to-morrow night.

—Will Evenson is still confined to his home by illness.

—Frank Fellows has so far recovered as to able to be out again

—Rev. Mr. Updike will preach this evening at Court Street church.

—The Milwaukee Presbytery are to meet to-morrow afternoon at the Presbyterian church.

—The mercury this morning touched below zero, the first time since the day after Christmas.

—There is to be another club party at the Johnson house, at Johnstown Center, to-morrow evening.

—One hundred tickets have already been sold for the coming entertainment of the Pember House Glee Club.

—Mr. J. O. Twitchell is to sing at the entertainment to be given by the Pember House Glee Club next Tuesday evening at Lappin's hall.

—Tom Austin, of Johnstown Center, went to Madison to-day to see that the legislature is running all right, and to look after the big stock sale more particularly.

—Smith & Tuckwood's band were at Edgerton last evening to play for the party given by St Joseph's choir. There were about eighty couples present and the affair was a complete success.

—The subject of study at the Round Table Saturday evening will be Epic Poetry illustrated from Homer, Virgil Dante and Milton. Papers will be read by Rev A. Lee Boyce, T. P. Sawin, Mrs. J. P. Haire and H. W. Tilton.

—Tickets for the Grand Hotel banquet and opening party are for sale at the following places: C E Moseley, Croft & Sherer, Prentice & Evenson, R W King, E V Whiton & Co, T M Jeffris, Chas Dutton, Jas A Dennistou, Burt Helmstreet, W T Vaukirk, Grand Hotel.

—The Ladies Art Class have made arrangements with Prof. McAllister, of Milwaukee, to give five lectures here on engraving and etching, the first to be delivered next Tuesday, in Cannon's hall, and one each following Tuesday evening. His lectures will be illustrated from his art collection, which is one of the finest in the country, its estimated value being $10,000.

—A lad while playing marbles near the Union house yesterday left his overcoat in a farmer's wagon standing near by, and in his zeal for the game forgot all about it until on looking around, he found the wagon had been driven off, overcoat and all,. The man who has the coat would confer a favor by returning it to the Gazette office, that it may reach the absent minded and youthful owner.

—The society of a prosperous village in the northwest corner of our county has recently been agitated by a marriage of an exceptional character. Both members of the co-partnership are devoted to improving the heads of their fellow-beings, the masculine partner being a zealous clergyman laboring to eradicate the effects of sin from the minds of his hearers, while the feminine partner bestowed her energies in the direction of calming the nerves of her neighboring sisters, by providing them with the latest styles of hats and hair. The wintry winds of seventy-one years have whitened the locks of the former, while the lineaments of his benevolent countenance bear deeply-furrowed traces of the ravages of time. The junior partner is a well-preserved virgin whose bloom of youth has not wholly paled beneath the summer suns of three score and four years, and the consummation of her hope verifies the philosophy of the poet who, more than a hundred years ago wrote:

"There swims no goose so gray, but soon or late
She finds some honest gander for a mate."

And it is to be most earnestly hoped that it will not have to be said that:

"Short were her marriage joys, for in the prime
Of youth, her lord expired before his time."

GETTING ALONG WELL.

Mr. Robbins had a rather comfortable night, and seems to be getting along well to-day, there being no more of the feverish condition.

CATS AND COTS.

Host Towne, of Ayers hotel at Harvard, has been making great preparations for the dairymen's association, and expecting that the house would be filled with guests began collecting cots to provide for the sleepers. The public was soon informed of the fact, but by one of those tricks of the types, which are common, it was announced that he was getting all the "cats" he could find. According to a telegram received by the Gazette from Harvard this morning, it appears that the first lot of cats have arrived there, they being thirteen in number, having been shipped to Towne, by Lote Taylor, the Clinton light weight. The cats were of all sizes, shapes, colors and previous conditions of servitude. Taylor has been sitting up nights for two weeks past watching the woodshed roof, and lassoing such unfortunate felines as stopped there for a serenade, and having secured enough for a starter, boxed them up, and sent them to his brother host. More cats are now expected from other quarters, and there is a good prospect of there being music and meat for all the visiting milkmen.

EVENING ENJOYMENT.

Last evening there was a joyous assembling of friends at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Smith. The rooms were most tastefully arranged and graced with floral decorations and presented a brilliant appearance. The company was select, and the guests were received and their wants cared for with a hearty hospitality. A bountiful supper was provided, and all the arrangements were such as to make the hours replete with enjoyment. It was a happy affair and is highly spoken of by all who were honored by a participation. This evening there is to be another and similar gathering at their house.

BLOODY SLASHING.

John Courtney Gets so Beside Himself as to Try to Cut His Throat.

His Hallucination.

Last evening shortly before 6 o'clock John Courtney attempted suicide at his home on South River street near its southern end. He had been talking with his family about ordinary matters, and finally remarked that he was not feeling firstrate, and would go into the bedroom and lie down. He entered the room and taking a razor at once entered upon the terrible act of shedding his own blood. He first cut a gash across his left wrist, and then slashed at his throat making there two gashes, from which the blood poured forth. The family at once had their attention called by his groans, and entering the room were horrified at the condition in which they found him. Messengers were at once sent for Dr. St. John and Father Doyle. The doctor on arriving there found that the cut on the wrist had severed only the tendons, but had not cut the artery. The cuts of the throat were more serious. It appeared that his first slash had not gone deep enough to suit him, but the second, just above "the apple," had nearly severed the windpipe, there being a very small portion at the back which alone kept it together. It was with difficulty that the severed windpipe could be brought together, as the man would give forth frequent exclamations of pain, which of course, put the muscles on the jump, but finally the wounds were dressed, and there is a probability that he may recover, though there are many chances against him.

There seems to be no cause for the attempted suicide except a mental aberration, and this was never very marked. To-day his mind seems perfectly clear, owing probably to the blood-letting. He has little to say about the affair though, but seems clear headed, and sees none of those apparitions, which he has occasionally spoken of lately. Several times of late he has spoken of being watched, and fancied that somebody was down on him, or was trying to injure him, and it is thought that this hallucination has been worrying him for an even longer time than he has spoken of.

He is an industrious and quite steady laboring man, and busies himself with whatever his hands can find to do. At times he has peddled from house to house, in the country. He is a middle aged man, has a wife and several children, and has lived here for some years.

Some weeks ago the Gazette received a letter from a town in Illinois, making inquiry concerning Courtney, and stating that he had left a part of his peddler's pack at a house there, where he stayed over night, and that he acted very strangely, and had disappeared mysteriously, without any apparent cause save a remark that he thought some one was going to kill him. It is now clear as to why he thus acted, he having been suffering from this mental trouble. Some think that he has not been exactly right for years, instead of months.

THERE is great demand for ST. JACOB'S OIL.

LAST NIGHT'S READINGS.

Last evening a very fine audience gathered in Cannon's hall to listen to the readings of Mrs. M. C. Adams, and Mrs. E. F. Evans, of Chicago. The new stage, arranged for the use of such entertainments as require it, was shown up in all its beauty. It is a very tasty affair, with a very pretty drop curtain, and arranged with a homelike look, which is in perfect harmony with the appearance of the hall. It is a handsome as well as convenient addition to the hall, and called forth many whispered comments of praise among the audience.

The programme presented last evening was a varied one, embracing much of the pathetic and the comic, which are always so popular. Mrs. Evans did the dialect work, and appeared in various costumes. The ladies showed the good taste not to essay the rendition of heavy or tragic selections, but confined themselves to the lighter literature. Their readings were in many respects unique, and as each took an entirely different class of selections it would be difficult to make any comparison between them.

The audience had great expectations of both readers, based on the high recommendations which forerun their coming here, and there was evident a general feeling of disappointment. Added to this the programme was too long, and the hall too cold, so that circumstances so grouped themselves, as not to render the affair a very great success.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON, DRUGGISTS.

The thermometer at 6 o'clock last night stood at 15 degrees above; at 1 o'clock a m., to-day at 8 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m., at 1 degree below, and at 1 o'clock p. m. at 14 degrees above. Clear.

The indications to-day are, for the upper lake region, light snow followed by clearing weather, rising followed by falling barometer, northwest to southwest winds, and slight changes in temperature.

Montreal Heard From.

R. L. Mosely, of Montreal, Canada, certified Sept. 27, 1870, that he had suffered terribly from dyspepsia, and was completely cured by taking Warner's Safe Bitters. He says: "My appetite is good, and I now suffer no inconvenience from eating hearty meals." These Bitters are also a specific for all skin diseases.

A STRAY BABY.

Last Saturday night, Attorney Page, of Evansville, heard a noise at his front door, and going there found upon the doorstep a live baby, which had been placed there by unknown hands. A short note accompanying the bundle, stated that it was "a child of love," and begging that it should be well cared for. According to this note the child was born a week ago last Sunday. A number of new and rich baby garments were also left, and a bottle of milk. The foundling was taken in and cared for, and Mr. Page and the officers have been on the hunt since to get some clue of the parents. It is claimed that they now have found the mother and the reputed father of the child. The whole vicinity is stirred up by the affair, and of course talk and surmises are plenty.

PLYMOUTH.

—Mr Lewis Smiley, who had a limb broken some time since, is out again.

—Miss Josie Garinger has returned home a graduate of the Whitewater Normal School.

—On the evening of January 29, a pleasant surprise was given Mr Carver's people by their friends and neighbors. After the usual greetings the company was entertained by various games and music, among which was a delightful solo and chorus rendered by Miss Lucy Dickey and the cultivated basso, Mr Iuman Next in order was supper, which with Briggs as chief cook, went off to the satisfaction of all. After supper Miss Garinger and Lyman rendered beautifully some songs, solos, &c. Last but not least, Miss Eliza Carver sang "Grandfather's Clock" in a manner worthy of praise, after which the good nights were spoken, and all went home thinking how glad "I was dat I was here."

—The church social at Mr. Garinger's Friday evening was a success, and all report a jolly time.

—The next social will be at Mr. Munson's, Friday evening, February 6th.

An Elegant Preparation

designed to meet the public want for a harmless hair dressing and restorative, is found in Parker's Hair Balsam. It acts like magic, commencing at the very roots, removes Dandruff and all humors from the scalp, and never fails to restore gray or faded hair to its original youthful color and beauty. Falling hair is immediately checked by its use, and it produces a growth of beautiful young hair, soft, glossy and luxuriant, that surprises everyone. These properties added to its exquisite perfume and purity of composition, render it the growing favorite at the toilet table everywhere. Sold in large bottles at only 50 cents and $1.00 by all first-class druggists.

There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. 25 cents a bottle.

For Dyspepsia, Weakness and Debility.

EPSOM, N. H., May 3, 1870

DEAR SIR—Having received great benefit from the use of PERUVIAN SYRUP, I am willing to add my testimony to the thousands of others constantly sounding its praise. During the late war I was in the army, and had the misfortune to be taken prisoner, and was confined in Salisbury and other Southern prisons several months, and became so much reduced in health and strength as to be a mere skeleton of my former self. On being released, I was a fit subject for a Northern hospital, where I remained some two months and then came home. My physician recommended and procured for me several bottles of PERUVIAN SYRUP, which I continued to use for several weeks, and found my health restored and my weight increased from ninety pounds to one hundred and fifty, my usual weight, and I have been in my usual good health ever since; and I can cheerfully recommend it in all cases of weakness and debility of the system, whether arising from an impure state of the blood, dyspepsia, or almost any other cause, believing it will in most cases give entire satisfaction.

Yours truly, GEO. S. BIXBY.

DISEASES OF THE HORSE—CAUSES AND REMEDIES, NO. 19—ATROPHY OF THE SHOULDER.

Atrophy of the shoulder is vulgarly termed sweeney, by the quacks of the country; why, I know not—there is no such word in any dictionary, or any language, that I know of; Schwinden, in the German, is the nearest to it, and Swaney, as an ordinary Irish name. This disease is the result, quite often, of a severe sprain of the muscles of the shoulder, by a sudden jerk against a stump when plowing, &c, &c, or, when on the road, stepping into an uneven place in the ground, stepping upon a loose stone—in fact, anything that gives a sudden violent shock may cause this wasting of the muscles. Above all, any lameness, no matter where—in foot, fetlock, knee or anywhere else, which prevents the natural use of the muscles, is quite likely to result in atrophy. Just as the muscles of the smith, after being produced by vigorous action as the result of his labors, will at once commence to waste if in disuse, and if long continued his muscles would become quite flabby and shrunken.

To find whether the horse is affected in the shoulder, a in some of the joints below, will require, a person of practical knowledge. If in the joints below a foot, that part must be doctored, not the shoulder. Often, the cause being removed, the muscles by natures own efforts will fill out again—not always—after the cause is removed, you may begin to use of the remedy which will consist in hard friction by rubbing in daily 4 pps ammonia 4 oz; alcohol 4 oz; cod liver oil 8oz; shake well whilst using, and keep well cooked. Rub up and down hard, after trying this for a week or two, and finding no real good results, I would advise a seten running from top to bottom, right through the centre. This must be pressed with a little blister ointment drawn into, and left in the wound made, allow it to remain without moving for three days, then draw downwards, wipe clean several times. Dress it again, and then press every second day, only allow the seten to remain in just as long as it will run, after taken it out squeeze gently downward so as to get all the pus out. This will usually reproduce the wasted muscles. Allow the horse voluntary exercise, no labor of any kind whilst the shoulder is sore. To work a poor, dumb, suffering animl is wicked, and any man guilty of such cruelty, ought to be punished, and receive the just condemnation of his fellow men. Especially do I admonish such as claim to be Christians. Many times, quite often, I have seen animals at work, driven and so worked, by persons who would have been shocked, if told plainly that they were sinners, then in the act of sinning.

Before closing, I wish to point to many preposterous foolish acts of persons, who claim to cure sweeney. I have seen many horses with holes cut into their shoulders, into which old copper pennies, &c, were thrust. Many other similar incredible things I have seen done, which were, and are a disgrace alike to the perpetrators and to the glorious enlightenment and intelligence of the latter portion of the nineteenth century.

Catarrhal POISON!

Wei De Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh explains the following important facts;

1. That Catarrhal Colds become a poisonous infection, at first local, and finally constitutional.

2. That, being Constitutional, the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies.

3. That impurities in the nostrils, are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs, thus poisoning the Digestive, Respiratory and Genito-urinary organs

4. That Catarrhal virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Deafness, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Bronchitis, Leucorrhœa, and Consumption.

5. That smokes, Douches, Inhalations, and Insoluble Snuffs, cannot possibly remove infectious inflammation from the organs named.

6. That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an inoculative affinity for, and the quality of being absorbed by the purulent mucous wherever located.

Based upon these plain theories, Dr. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure has proved to be infallible. It not only relieves, it cures Catarrh at any stage. Home testimony:
